WEEKLY REMINDERS:

1. Cell phones - place in slot at front of room.
2. Your senior class officers are in need of photos--any photos of you and your friends from grades K-12. They are creating a slideshow of pictures put to music that will be viewed at the senior banquet. Email them to Scout Van Cise @ livancise@psdmail.org.
3. Vocab Journals--from now until end of year, only complete the two words of the week. (However, journals are still worth 40 points. Each word is worth 20 points now.)
4. No laptops this week because of CDT's/PSSA's. Use iPads with plug-in keyboards.

WOTW 1: narrator (n.) - the voice used by an author to tell/narrate a story. The narrator is often a created identity, and should not automatically be equated with the author.

DAILY WORDS OF WISDOM: "Opportunities are seldom labeled."--Claude MacDonald, 19th-century British diplomat

Period 2, 5:

1. Review daily plan.
2. Continue constructing Works Cited page in final paper document. Watch out for the following things:
 - o 1. There are two new resources in the "Book/Movie Research Paper" folder. "New Sample Works Cited Page" is my example. It lists my six sources (all formatted correctly). "MLA Formatting Guidelines..." lists the specific requirements for the different types of sources and provides examples. Use these as resources while you are constructing your Works Cited page.
 - o 2. Remember to pay attention to detail. You must be very careful here!
3. If time, begin drafting book/movie research paper. Use the template you created in Google Drive. Refer back to your outline so you know what you need to say. (Goal: Complete introduction.)

Period 4, 7:

1. Review daily plan.
2. Review and accept Mr. C-M's corrections for the Recommendation Posters.
3. Print posters.
 - a. Download your poster as a PDF.
 - b. Email it to Mr. Hetrick. He will print a copy in color for the bulletin board.
 - c. Go to the library and print a second copy in black and white. Mr. Hetrick will collect these for Mr. C-M to grade.
4. Read quietly when finished.
